Renny Bush Humphrey Chesterfield County Board of Supervisors

Renny Bush Humphrey has served the Matoaca District on the Board of Supervisors since 1996. She was elected the first female Chairman in 1998 and also served as Chairman in 2001. She is a lifelong resident of Chesterfield County. She graduated from Clover Hill High School and received a bachelor's degree from James Madison University. She currently serves on the Board of Visitors at her alma mater.

A former laboratory specialist at the Medical College of Virginia at Virginia Commonwealth University, Humphrey currently is a stay-at-home mom to her daughter Annie, born in July 2002.

Prior to serving on the Board of Supervisors, she was a member of Chesterfield County's Committee on the Future.

Humphrey also has served on the Ettrick-Matoaca Youth Organization Advisory Panel, the Chesterfield County Fair Association and the Chesterfield Tractor Club.

She is a member of the Chesterfield Historical Society and Chesterfield County Friends of the Library. She serves on the Virginia and Chesterfield Farm Bureaus. She is active in the Chesterfield Republican Club and on the Chesterfield County Republican Committee.

Humphrey also serves on the Richmond Regional Planning District Commission, Crater Planning District Commission, Tri-Cities Metropolitan Planning Organization and the Red Cross Local Government Advisory Committee.

She received the YWCA's "Woman of the Year" award for Government and Politics in 1999.
